How to sign up?

Once the commission is decided and other details are satisfactory for both parties, we will fill out the contract and sign.

Contract signing makes you Femmecart clients and collaborators.

After that, you will provide us with pictures, prices, and a short description of your products. We will publish those on our website to start selling.

FAQs

What are the charges for joining?

We charge a commission based on the prices of your products.

Is it contract-based?

Yes. The standard contract is one year but with mutual understanding we can extend to whatever period we want.

Will annual reports be provided?

Yes. Every 6 months, and annually, reports will be provided. We will stay in constant contact with you to improve our productivity in marketing and selling your products.

Will mentoring be provided alongside?

Yes. See above.

We will also ask that you provide latest product updates to be added to the inventory list along with shorts, reels, and pictures for advertisement for the inventory.
